ABOUT PRAKHAR GUPTA:

Prakhar is a social commentator and a cultural critic. He hosts the PG Radio podcast that covers conversations from science, art, philosophy, technology, and politics; and PrakharKePravachan YouTube channel - which is an overlap of philosophy, psychology, and questions on how to live a good life.

In less than a year, Prakhar rose to become one of India's most popular public speakers. He has given 8+ keynotes at some of India's top institutions, including IITs and 2 TEDx talks.

Prakhar also co-hosted the #1 live podcast in India 'Raw & Real' where he shared his uncensored opinions on pop culture, politics, society, psychology, and philosophy.

Prakhar is currently a Dean's List student of Psychology and Economics at Columbia University, in the city of New York.

DETAILS:

Prakhar joined us for a podcast on the 24th of September, from 7:30 pm. The event was part of Inspira Talks, E-Summit'21. It was co- conducted by three of our students: Dipro Banerjee, PrannayKedia and Aishani Bhattacharya; over a couple of hours. The podcast covered topics related to Psychology, Philosophy, Politics and Entrepreneurship. It turned out to be the most viewed session of Inspira Talks, amassing over 4.7k views on JU E-Cell's YouTube Channel. It was an interactive session with questions asked by the audience being taken at regular intervals. Prakhar talked about various topics relevant to today's society allowing students and other viewers to get his perspectives and learn various things which would prove helpful to them.
